2019 PROGRAMME

Supporting Children through the loss of a loved one

Developing a Bereavement Policy:

Particularly aimed at schools, this course had been developed in response to frequent requests. When a child experiences a significant bereavement, school is often the one part of their life that remains relatively stable. This course helps you develop a bereavement policy so that staff are prepared and able to offer appropriate support.

This course aims to:-

- Explore and evaluate your current practices, identifying sources of support to enable you to build on existing strengths
- Share best practice and give examples of different approaches.
- Provide a framework for developing a structured response to bereavement that is practicable within your organisation
